Different Feelings: Talk, Draw and Listen

Different ideas are welcome. Listen to the explanation.

Read together. Two people can feel differently about the same thing. Talk, draw or write. You can pass on any question.

Jo

Jo sees a new game and wants to try it straight away.

Might feel:

_____

Ari

Ari sees the same game and wants to watch first.

Might feel:

_____

Some words you could use: excited, unsure, calm, curious. You can choose another word too.

What could you ask before deciding how to help?

Choose a pretend situation.

1. A friend invites someone to play.
2. A paper tower falls over.
3. Someone finishes a tricky model.

Draw a possible feeling.

They might feel _____ because _____
_____