Questions and Statements: Choose the Ending

Read for meaning, then choose the punctuation.

Does each sentence ask something or tell something? Write ? or . in the box. Say whether it is a question or a statement.

Where is the boat? This asks: a question.

The boat is here. This tells: a statement.

1. Where is my scarf ☐

   Say: question or statement?

2. The boat is blue ☐

   Say: question or statement?

3. Can you see the moon ☐

   Say: question or statement?

4. A seed is in the pot ☐

   Say: question or statement?

5. When does the shop open ☐

   Say: question or statement?

6. The dog sits by the gate ☐

   Say: question or statement?

Write a question of your own.

Write a statement of your own.