Singular Possession: Add an Apostrophe

Show who owns something with a singular noun.

One owner: add an apostrophe and s to the owner's noun. Keep the owned thing after it.

the hat of the fox becomes the fox's hat

One fox owns the hat.

Rewrite each phrase. There is one owner each time.

1. the bag of the child

2. the nest of the bird

3. the coat of the teacher

4. the tail of the rabbit

A special case: circle the correct word.

5. The dog wags (its / it's) tail.

6. (Its / It's) a rainy day.

Write your own phrase with one owner: