The Lost Scarf: Read and Understand

Read the story together. Find clues for your answers.

Name: _____

READ OR LISTEN TOGETHER
An adult may read aloud. Talk about unfamiliar words.

On a chilly morning, Mina and her grandad walked to the park. Mina wore a red scarf. At the duck pond, she took it off and put it on the bench.

A gust of wind blew the scarf behind the bench. When it was time to go, Mina could not find her scarf. Grandad spotted a red corner under a pile of dry leaves.

Mina shook off the leaves and wrapped the scarf around her neck. "Next time, I will put it in my bag," she said.

Find the facts. Look back at the story.

1. Who went to the park with Mina?

_____

2. Where did Mina put the scarf at the pond?

_____

3. What blew the scarf behind the bench?

_____

An adult may read, discuss unfamiliar vocabulary or write down the child's spoken answers.

The Lost Scarf: Read and Understand

Look back, think and explain. You can tell an adult your answers.

1. Put the events in order.

Use the story on the previous page. Write 1, 2, 3 and 4 in the boxes.

- [ ] Grandad spotted a red corner.
- [ ] Mina put her scarf on the bench.
- [ ] Mina shook the leaves off her scarf.
- [ ] The wind blew the scarf behind the bench.

2. Explore a word.

In the story, what is a gust? Tick one answer.

- [ ] a quiet, slow footstep
- [ ] a short, strong burst of wind
- [ ] a pile of dry leaves

3. Explain using the story.

Why will Mina put her scarf in her bag next time?

How might Mina feel when she finds her scarf?

Use the story to explain.

There can be different sensible feelings. Explain your idea using a clue from the story.